

A Strand of Faith

by Tina Marie Posey

Our lives as Christians can be compared to a kite. Sometimes we glide high in the sky on a smooth course, feeling full of faith in God. Other times we experience a great deal of turbulence that tatters and tears at our faith. Our surrounding circumstances can create an atmosphere of hopelessness that jolts us crashing down into a sea of despair.

But with a mere strand of faith, as we cry out and yield to our Maker, He will lovingly carry us through the storms of life and gently mend our brokenness. We can ask God to help us recognize the lies we believe and allow the Holy Spirit to speak truth in our circumstances. Then we can begin to soar with confidence once again, because God is in control. As we totally trust in Him, He will continually guide us along life's paths.

"Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ." Philippians 1:6

What's going on in your life? Do you feel like a kite tattered from turbulence? Take a moment to meditate on some promises from God's word and claim them for your own. If you want to become a Christian, you must believe that God sent His Son Jesus to die for your sins, pray confessing your sins, and ask His forgiveness. He will forgive you, cleanse you, and make you new. God will be with you through the storms. God loves you so much! His promises are true and for you!
